

Self-catering Accommodation in Oxford

Whether you are looking for a little more privacy or intending to visit Oxford with family or a group, there are a wide range of self-catering options to choose from in and around the city centre. From modern apartments to quirky period properties, there is something for every taste and budget. Here are a few of the best websites to help you find your perfect self-catering accommodation:

www.noaresidence.com

OISE Oxford works closely with Noa Residence who offer modern self-catering studio apartments in a refurbished Victorian House in an attractive residential area of Oxford. Special rates are available to OISE students – please ask one of our team for details.

www.weeklyhome.com

Weekly Home is a well-established company providing top quality, short-let serviced accommodation, self-catering and holiday lettings in Oxford and Oxfordshire.

www.oxfordshortlets.co.uk

OxfordShortlets serviced accommodation offer a wide variety of quality, fully furnished and equipped properties from one bedroom apartments in North Oxford to stylish and contemporary penthouse suits in Oxford city centre.

www.7bannisterclose.co.uk

Occupying a prime position in central Oxford, this beautifully presented light and airy one bedroom apartment comprises sitting/dining room, bedroom, shower room, fully equipped kitchen and a south facing pretty paved courtyard garden. Access to the internet is free.

If you require any help looking for a suitable property, one of our team would be more than happy to assist you. Simply call us on 01865 247272 or send an email to oxfordaccommodation@oise.com.