

OISE Oxford 2017: Sample Leisure Timetable - Spring

---

Daily Coffee Mornings

Come up to the 3rd floor and join us for fresh coffee and pastries at 10:45am each weekday.

Monday: Welcome Drinks

Be sure to come and mingle with other OISE students and staff on the 3rd floor at 5.15pm, enjoy a glass of wine and some nibbles. We look forward to seeing you there. Please remember to bring your First Impressions Questionnaire with you. Your feedback is very important!

Tuesday: Walking Tour of Oxford

Explore the backstreets of this historic city, winding your way between the walls and grounds of some colleges in the city centre with a guide who will give you an overview of the history of the city and its famous university.

Thursday: Traditional Cream Tea at the Grand Cafe

Join us for Traditional cream tea at the Grand Café- listed as the first coffee house in England according to Samuel Pepys' 1650 diary. The café has become an Oxford institution and no visit to the city is complete with stopping in at the Grand Café!

Friday: Farewell Lunch

Come and have some lunch nibbles and say goodbye to leaving students with a glass of Cava. Everyone is welcome. Come to the 3rd floor at 12:45pm. Leaving students: please remember to fill in an End of Course Questionnaire, and collect your Certificate.

Saturday: Tour of the Bodleian Library

Oxford's libraries are among the most celebrated in the world, not only for their incomparable collections of books and manuscripts, but also for their buildings, some of which have remained in continuous use since the Middle Ages. The Bodleian Library is one of the oldest libraries in Europe, and in Britain is second in size only to the British Library with over 12 million printed items. We will be taking a 60 minute guided tour of this famous and wonderful library.
