

OISE Oxford Advanced Learners' Programme Factsheet: Cultural Activities

OISE Oxford is proud to announce the return of the Advanced Learners' Programme for ambitious, young individuals for 2015. It will be taking at Oxford University's Brasenose College. Students will sleep, dine and study within the historic walls of Brasenose College.

As well as an intensive academic programme there will be a wide range of cultural activities to take place every evening and at the weekend. These will be led by true Oxford enthusiasts.

Blenheim Palace

Punting

Ashmolean Museum

Shakespeare theatre

Evenings will feature a mixture of academic workshops and cultural activities such as:

- Punting
- Guest speakers,
- Shakespeare outdoor theatre
- Guided walking tour of Oxford and its colleges
- Museum visits
- Picnics
- Sport - Games in the University Park

There will also be excursions at the weekend to historic and picturesque Blenheim Palace, the birth place of Winston Churchill, located in nearby Woodstock. Students will enjoy a private guided tour of the grand palace.

Course 1: 5th – 18th July 2015

Course 2: 19th July – 1st August 2015

Total Cost: £3880 (for 2 weeks)