

---

Travelling to Oxford 2019

---

Oxford is well served by public transport from the major London airports and the friendly team at OISE are always keen to offer travel advice and assistance to our students. Below you will find details of the most popular means of travelling to this charming city.

Taxi Transfer

For those wishing for a prompt and private arrival to Oxford, OISE Oxford are pleased to offer private taxi transfers between all major airports and your selected accommodation option.

Heathrow to Oxford £137

Gatwick to Oxford £177

Birmingham to Oxford £155

Airport Bus

The Oxford Airline is a comfortable and frequent coach system, which serves Heathrow, Gatwick and Birmingham airports. Features include free Wi-Fi.

Heathrow to Oxford return £30

Gatwick to Oxford return £37

Birmingham to Oxford return £25

Detailed information including service updates at

<http://airline.oxfordbus.co.uk/>

Coaches from London

The Oxford Tube is a convenient service which departs roughly every 10 minutes from multiple locations in Oxford and London. The journey averages 1 hour and 40 minutes. Students are eligible for discounted travel with a letter of enrolment.

London to Oxford Student-Single £11

London to Oxford Student-Return £15

Detailed information including fares and service updates at

<http://www.oxfordtube.com/>

Trains from London

Trains run frequently between London Paddington and Oxford train station with an average journey time of around an hour. Oxford train station is a 10 minute walk from the city centre, and buses connect it to various areas of the city.

Detailed information including fares and service updates at

<http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/>

