

OISE Newbury Study Hall Report - Scholar English

Level on arrival: A1/A2

Current level: B1-/B1

Overall Progress

The student has demonstrated remarkable progress throughout his programme, advancing from a very low A1 starting point to confidently producing work at B1 level. This achievement represents substantial linguistic development and reflects his considerable potential when he applies himself fully to his studies.

Areas for Development and Future Recommendations

The student would benefit enormously from building upon his natural ability with increased consistency in his work ethic.

As his maturity continues to develop, he should capitalise on his proven capacity for B1-level work by maintaining more consistent engagement with his studies.

The foundation he has built during this programme positions him excellently for future academic opportunities.

His demonstrated ability to engage with complex topics, produce sophisticated written work, and present confidently suggests he will thrive in more advanced programmes, provided he continues to develop the self-discipline that will allow his considerable talents to flourish consistently.

Conclusion

The student's journey from very low A1 to confident B1 level work represents exceptional progress.

His growth in both linguistic competence and personal confidence has been impressive.

With continued maturation and more consistent application of his evident abilities, he is well-positioned to excel in future educational endeavours.
