Tutored English: Speaking with vocal impact

Tutorial ™

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Students gain the experience and acquire the skills necessary to use the English language at a high level. Teachers set milestones and goals for each student, with constant evaluation. This sets the pace for each learner to surpass their academic expectations.

OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

To use tone of voice to create impact

To use tone of voice to create impact

The use of tone of voice to create impact
A focus on the way the spoken word is delivered in order to perfect the techniques necessary for engaging an audience (whether large or small) and for communicating a message with impact. Repeated practice gives the student confidence and leads to the learner feeling in control of their spoken language.

Includes 3 separate modules:

- Enunciation: Speaking with clarity and precision
- The use of pause
- Rhythm and pace to convey meaning

ACCOMMODATION

Half-board homestay

Staying in a homestay gives participants the chance to be fully immersed into the local culture of the destination, whilst also being able to practise the language in a relaxed and natural setting. Many homestays have been welcoming our students into their homes for many years, offering their hospitality and expanding our students cultural horizons. Homestay arrivals are on the Sunday before the course begins, and departures are on the Saturday after the course ends.

LOCATION

The experience of living in Oxford

For almost a millennium Oxford has been a hub of learning and academia.

A small university city, Oxford is easily navigable and students are quickly able to settle in and feel comfortable. The city has a bustling centre, with numerous shops, restaurants and cafes, as well as opportunities to explore the rich history and culture through museums, galleries and theatres. The centre of the city is also close to several parks and open spaces, allowing students to spend time outdoors and enjoying nature.
